Evangelist to Give Lecture at Grand Theatre Sunday Evening

"The Bible Predicts Communism's Doom" is the subject of a lecture to be given Sunday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Grand Theatre, 1522 Cravens Avenue, Torrance.

Evangelist D. R. Guild, spokesman for the Guild-Hardy evangelistic company which is inaugurating the campaign, stated that "seven words of Bible Prophecy that will smash Russia's dream will be revealed."

The evangelist stated further, "From ancient Bible Predictions the outcome of the tangled world situation and how and when permanent world peace will be established will be pointed out."

NO CHARGE

The lecture will be illustrated on the stage as the discourse progresses. There is no admission charge and the public is invited.

Services will be held every Sunday and Friday evening for the duration of the campaign. The topic for the Friday night, of September 21, will be "Did a God Make a Bad Devil?"

The purpose of the meetings will be "to give the meaning of our times in the light of Bible Prophecy, and to present Christ for the Crisis hour in which we live."

Music will be under the direction of Gerry Hardy of London.

Foursquare Church to Hear Missionaries

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Knapp who have recently returned from Columbia, South America, after spending over six years in that missionary field, will be speaking in the Torrance Foursquare Church, 1207 El Prado, 7:30 p.m., Friday evening.

They will be relating their experiences of how they went through a revolution and persecution. They will also be telling how they pioneered the work in the oil town of Barranca Bermeja.

Not only will they be speaking, but will be showing beautiful colored slides of their mode of living and customs of the people of Columbia.

Winter Schedule Of Episcopalian Church Announced

The winter schedule of services at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will begin this Sunday, Sept. 16th, according to Rev. Arthur Bello.

The services will be as follows: 8 a.m., Holy Communion; 9:30 a.m., Sunday School Registration; 10 a.m. Family Service; 11 a.m., Morning Prayer and Sermon.

Church School registration for the Junior and Senior grades will begin at 9:30 a.m. this Sunday. With a new and larger Sunday School building being completed it will be possible to admit more children into the classes.

School Officials in Pulpit of First Christian Church Sunday

The First Christian Church of Torrance will give special recognition to the opening of school in the Sunday morning Church service this Sunday, September 16, 1951.

The guest speakers in the pulpit are to be Judge John Shidler, chairman of the Torrance Board of Education, and Dr. Rollin R. Smith, the newest member of the Board of Education.

Rev. England, Pastor of the Church will introduce both speakers and preside at the service.

The speakers will present their subjects on, "Parallel Goals of the Church and School," and "The Necessity for Close Cooperation Between Church and School."

This special service is planned as a Community recognition of the Teachers and Administrators of the Torrance School System.

All teachers and those associated with the School organization are cordially invited to be special guests in the service.

Several of the teachers, and principals will also participate in the service by reading the Scripture and saying the prayers.

Increase Expected At First Methodist Sunday School

With vacations over, a large increase in Sunday School and church attendance is expected on Sunday morning at the First Methodist Church in Torrance, according to The Rev. Clarence E. Miller, minister.

The Sunday School with departments and classes for all ages begins at 9:30 a.m. The Church service of worship begins at 10:30 a.m. with Vernon Robinson, Minister of Music, playing the organ and directing the choir.
